

A Holistic Approach to Healthcare Ethics- A Spiritual Perspective

Presented by
Gary Behrman, Ph.D., LCSW, M.Div.

Upon completing this free workshop, participants will be able to:

1. Distinguish what is a value, an ethic, and a belief
2. Create the components of a spiritual assessment and treatment approach
3. Identify steps in resolving ethical conflicts that arise from religious beliefs
4. Learn the components of a holistic approach to health care

***3 social work CEU's for ethics will be available*****

Where: The Gatesworth at One McKnight Place
St. Louis, MO 63124

Date: Thursday, Sept. 22, 2011      Time: 1pm-4:30pm

Sponsored by:

St. Louis Unit

Gary Behrman, PhD, LCSW, M.Div. obtained his doctoral degree in Social Welfare from the University Albany in NY, his Master of Social Work from Saint Louis University and his Master of Divinity from St. Meinrad School of Theology. He is a Gero-Ed Center Expert Trainer on Aging with the Council Social Work Education. He has worked in healthcare as an oncology social worker and with employee assistance programs providing trauma relief work, substance abuse and mental health services. His research and publications focus on how and why people flourish in old age and/or following a crisis and the functions of religion and spirituality in this process. He is a frequent speaker at national and local conferences and currently teaches at Lindenwood University and is the Director of the BSW Program.

RSVP: cathy@continuumcare.com or 314-686-4451